The screenshot displays the CLJLaw search interface. The main search area includes a search criteria dropdown set to 'Caselaw', a search term input field containing '"liberty to file afresh" translation', and various filters for 'Act in Cases', 'Cases From' (All, Reported, UnReported, Industrial), and 'Citation' (Journal, Year, Volume, Page). A 'Go' button is visible. To the right, a 'Settings' panel is open, showing 'Search In' options (Full Text, Head Notes, Case Name, Counsel, Annotation) and 'Proximity' options (Anywhere, Exact Phrase, Within Senten, Within Para, Within Words). A blue arrow points from the search term field to the 'Settings' panel, and another blue arrow points from the 'Settings' panel down towards the text below.

(4) There was a clear indication that the appellant actually never wanted to withdraw its action in tort had accrued since the year 1999 and the limitation period of six years under Even though the action had been withdrawn with liberty to file afresh, the appellant was not seriously prejudiced if the said consent order was not set aside. (para 22)

(4) Terdapat petunjuk yang jelas bahawa perayu tidak pernah mahu menarik balik tuntutan telah terakru sejak tahun 1999 dan tempoh had enam tahun di bawah s. 6(1) Akta Had Ma ditarik balik dengan kebebasan memfailkan semula, perayu tidak lagi berhak untuk merujuk diprejudikan jika perintah persetujuan tersebut tidak diketepikan.
